

Lockert, Hamlin and Hamlin PLLC Attorneys

Estate Planning and Probate

One of the most important areas of law that Lockert, Hamlin and Hamlin PLLC assist the general public in is helping Tennessee seniors and families cope with the legal challenges we face as we age and the passing of a loved one. Our attorneys have dealt with elder law, estate planning, and probate matters for many years and have assisted many Middle Tennessee families in this area of law. Typically, all of us face issues with elders or special needs issues involving long-term nursing home care; wills and trusts; Tennessee probate; trust administration; planning; durable powers of attorney; elder law; asset protection; planning for people with special needs trusts; at-home care or nursing home care; business succession planning; and fiduciary services. Please call our legal office and schedule a confidential consultation to discuss your legal matter and evaluate your legal options and allow us to provide seasoned advice for your individual needs or that of your family.
